

11 February 1954

Mr. Spencer Miller, Assistant Secretary of Labor, called and gave the following message which he thought would interest the Director. He said they had just gotten word a short time ago that the strategy in Berlin that Molotov plans to follow is this: They are getting together the people from the WFTU (Communist dominated Labor organization), and are planning to bring them into Berlin with two thoughts in mind - one to show that the workers stand squarely in back of Molotov, and secondly, they plan a May Day demonstration. It is quite obvious that the whole thing is stage managed and part of an overall plan. Mr. Miller thought Mr. Dulles might wish to relay this to the State Department. Mr. Arnold L. Steinbach, Consultant on International matters in the Dept. of Labor, could supply any further information, and full details, if desired.
